Petersbourg, June 23.

TWELVE Ships of the Line, and six Frigates, lie ready at Cronstadt to put to Sea, in order to exercise their Seamen, as they usually do every Summer.

Leghorn, June 26. The great Quantity of Corn which has been lately brought into this Port, and the Appearances we now have of a plentiful Harvest, has greatly fallen the Price of that Commodity. A few Days ago one of the Barbary Corsairs brought in here a Portuguese Ship laden with Tobacco, which she took in the Spanish Sea; and the Master of a Ship just arrived from Corsica says, that there are several Barbary Corsairs cruizing upon that Coast, as well as that of Sardinia, but that he had not heard of their having taken any considerable Prize; he likewise says, that he was chased by one of them for twelve Hours, but that he had the good Fortune to out-sail them.

Turin, June 27. On the 21st Instant the Archbishop of this City, accompanied by most of the Bishops of this Kingdom, went in Procession to compliment his Majesty and the Royal Family on the Marriage of the Duke of Savoy with the Infanta of Spain; since which the Clergy in a Body have done the same. The Deputies from the several Provinces of this Kingdom have likewise had the Honour of Complimenting the King on this Occasion, and have presented his Majesty with the Free Gift each Province makes in Consideration of this Marriage. This Day the Ceremony of installing the last promoted Knights of the Order of the Annunciade was performed in his Majesty's Presence, when each Knight was invested with the full Habit and Collar, being the Ensigns of that Order, of which the Archbishop of this City was appointed Chancellor. The Marquess de Corseigne, Great Chamberlain, and Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, died here in the Night between the 23d and 24th Instant of an Apoplectick Fit.

Rome, June 27. The Number of Barbary Corsairs which almost continually infest the Italian Sea, making it apprehensive least they should attempt a Descent upon the Coast of the Ecclesiastical State; and fearing least the Number of Troops already posted along the Coast, should not be sufficient to hinder them; the Pope has ordered those Troops to be augmented with two Companies of One hundred Men each, the one of Horse, and the other of Foot, which it is thought will be sufficient to prevent any Attempt of that Kind.

Madrid, June 29. The last Advices from Parma inform us, that the Dutchess, Consort to the Infant Don Philip Duke of Parma, was entered into the third Month of her Pregnancy. And from Turin we learn, that the Dutchess of Savoy expresses the greatest Satisfaction at the Reception she has met with from all Classes of People at that Court. Orders are given for the Examination of a Plan to make the River Ebro navigable from Saragoza to the Mediterranean. And a Project is likewise forming for rendering the Guadalquivir navigable from Seville to Cordova, and as much higher into the Country as may be found practicable. His Catholick Majesty has named the Chefs d'Escadre, Don Pedro de la Cerda, and Don Francisco Orosco, Gentlemen of the Bed-Chamber. The Court is expected at the Palace of the Buen Retiro on Saturday the 4th of next Month.

Vienna, July 1. On the 22d Instant a Grand Council was held at Schonbrun, since which the Court has been preparing for its intended Journey to the Camp at Petau in Stiria, which will certainly take Place in a few Days; and besides the Prince and Princess of Lorrain, their Imperial Majesties will be accompanied thither by many of the principal Lords and Ladies of the Court. The Baron de Backhoff is arrived here in Quality of Minister from the King of Denmark. Her Imperial Majesty has appointed the Baron de Breitlach to be her Ambassador Extraordinary to the Court of Russia. The Tripolitan Minister had Yesterday his Audience of Leave of Count Harrach, President of the Council of War, and will set out towards the End of the Week for Leghorn, in his Way to Tripoly.

Copenhagen, July 4. The King returned on Tuesday last from visiting the Danish Islands, and this Morning his Majesty set out for Fredensberg. On the 28th past the East India Company's Ship, the King of Denmark, arrived here from China; and the Queen of Denmark, another of that Company's Ships, is daily expected.

Berlin, July 7. On Tuesday last the Court went into Mourning for the late Prince of Hohenzollern Hechingen. The Duke and Dutchess of Brunswick Wolfenbuttel are expected here some Time this Month; in the mean Time a fine Firework and other Preparations are making, by Order of the King, for their Entertainment.

Hamburg, July 8. This Morning came in here a Jager with twenty Barrels and a half of British Herrings, two Dutch Jagers with about sixty Barrels of their Herrings, having arrived a few Hours before; as the former were caught by two Busses only, and the Dutch have a whole Fleet, 'tis thought here that the English have had extraordinary good Success. M. Bosanquet, to whom the English Jager was consigned, had been previously directed by the Society of the Free British Fishery in England, to send ſend away immediately to Hanover, two ſmall Kegs of Herrings, as ſoon as they ſhould arrive, one as a Preſent for the King, and the other for the Duke of Newcaſtle, as Samples of the Britiſh Herrings; accordingly an Expreſs ſet out with them this Day at Noon. The ſmall Cargoe, which came as a Tryal, ſold immediately, and at the Rate of Eighty Pounds the Laſt, and that too at a Time when the Dutch ſold theirs at Vlaerden at no more than Forty Gilders per Ton, which is only about Forty-five Pounds per Laſt; and as the Britiſh Herrings have been preferred to thoſe of the Dutch at this Market, it is looked upon as an Earneſt of farther Succeſs in the preſent laudable Undertaking of the Free Britiſh Fiſhery.

Franckfort, July 9. We have juſt received Advice of the Death of the young Prince of which the Princeſs of Heſſe Darmſtadt was lately brought to Bed. The Affair concerning the Church which the Proteſtants are deſirous of having built in this City, remains juſt in the ſame Situation, the Magiſtrates ſtill perſiſting in their Refuſal to grant any ſuch Permiſſion.

Hanover, July 10. Princeſs Mary of Heſſe arrived Yeſterday at Herrenhauſen from Caſſel, and immediately waited on the King her Father, who received her with great Affection.

Hague, July 14. Within theſe few Days paſt ſeveral Perſons have taken the uſual Oaths before the Council of State, to qualify themſelves for the ſeveral Employments his Serene Highneſs the Prince of Orange has been lately pleaſed to confer on them. M. de Verelſt, Miniſter Plenipotentiary from the States General to the King of Sardinia, ſet out on the 10th Inſtant for Zealand, of which he is Deputy, in order to take Leave of the States of that Province; after which he will proceed on his Journey to Turin. Moſt of the heavy Baggage of the Marqueſs de St. Conteſt, Ambaſſador from France to this Court, is arrived at Rotterdam, but his Excellency is not expected here theſe ſix Weeks. The Ambaſſador from the Emperor of Morocco, who arrived here ſome Days ago, has already had his firſt Audience of the Greffier Fagel.

Whitehall, July 7.

The King has been pleaſed to conſtitute and appoint Charles Polhill, James Vernon, Robert Eyre, Horatio Townſhend, William Burton, John Orlebar, Auguſtine Earle, and David Papillon, Eſqrs. together with John Windham Bowyer, Eſq; in the room of John Fowle, Eſq; to be his Majeſty's Commiſſioners for the Management and Receipt of his Majeſty's Revenue of Exciſe and other Duties within England, Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed.

Whitehall, June 23, 1750.

Whereas Littleton Pointz Meynell, of Bradley, in the County of Derby, Eſq; hath humbly repreſented to their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices, That on Thurſday the 14th of this Inſtant June, he received, by the Poſt, from Derby, a Letter, ſigned A Samaritan, Threatning to ſhoot him dead, or burn his Houſe, and him in it. Their Excellencies are pleaſed to promiſe His Majeſty's moſt gracious Pardon to any Perſons concerned in writing the ſaid Letter (except the Perſon who was the real Author thereof) who ſhall diſcover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, ſo that he, ſhe, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

Ri. Nev. Aldworth.

And for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſon or Perſons concerned in writing the ſaid Threatning Letter, I do hereby promiſe a Reward of Five Hundred Pounds to any Perſon or Perſons (except the real Author of the ſaid Letter) who ſhall diſcover any one or more of the Accomplices therein, ſo that he, ſhe, or they be apprehended and convicted thereof.

Bradley, L. P. Meynell.
